Who was the second king of Israel who was called “a man after God’s own heart”? (David)

How did David defeat Goliath?

Reenact the battle between David and Goliath. Have kids pick up five cotton balls (or other soft things to throw) and hurl one at your head. When you get hit, fall dramatically and let David celebrate.

David was a great warrior. What do you think a great warrior would look like? Draw a picture of the perceived ideal warrior.

Everyone in David’s time thought a great king must be a great warrior. David was both. But a king must be more, too. What other qualities would make a king (or queen) great?
